

P5000 Power Bank

Weighing a mere 117g and featuring an ultra-compact form factor, the ADATA P5000 is the epitome of portable mobile power. What's more, it comes in six different colors and has a handy built-in counterfeit money detector.

Slim and Ergonomic

Measuring in at 10cm thick, the P5000 is slimmer than many power banks of the same capacity.

Just Right for You

With 5000mAh capacity, it's got just enough power to charge your smartphone from empty to full one time.

Counterfeit Money Detector

With a built-in ultraviolet (UV) counterfeit money detector, the P5000 can reveal UV security markings and watermarks to help you spot a fake.

Sophisticated Look and Feel

The P5000's design sports minimalist sensibilities and a textured, leather-inspired exterior that won't pick up messy fingerprints and unsightly smudges.
